BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION FORM INSTRUCTIONS

Please note: You only need to complete this form if your beneficiary designation requires spousal consent. See Section 4 to see if this applies to you.

In the event of your death, your designated beneficiary(ies) will be entitled to any assets remaining in your account. Please provide all of the requested information for each beneficiary — this information will help ICMA-RC locate your beneficiaries if necessary. You can always update your beneficiary information online by following the instructions below.

Designating beneficiaries for your account is important:

- Your designation helps to ensure assets will be paid out according to your wishes and will not be subject to the potential costs and delays of probate, as well as creditor claims. If all of your primary beneficiaries are no longer living at the time of your death, benefits will be paid to your contingent beneficiaries.
- Your beneficiaries may receive more tax advantages.

Percent of Benefit Information – If you provide percentages that do not total 100%, or provide non-whole numbers, your designations will be invalid. However, if no percentages are provided for any beneficiary designations, the benefit will be allocated equally among all beneficiaries.

Trust Beneficiaries – If you name a trust as your primary or contingent beneficiary, you must submit a complete copy of your entire trust document with this form.

Update Beneficiary Information Online

- Log in to ICMA-RC's Account Access at www.icmarc.org/login.
- Go to the Manage My Account tab and click the My Profile link.
- Click the Beneficiaries link.
- Click the Update Beneficiaries button and enter your beneficiary information.

Married Participants

- VantageTrust Retirement IncomeAdvantage Fund Investors —To Lock-In and receive spousal benefits from the Fund, your spouse must be designated as the primary beneficiary for 100% of your account, both at the time you Lock-In the benefit and at the time of your death. By signing below, you (the participant's spouse) are consenting to the benefit percentage specified below and the participant's beneficiary designation(s) on page 1 of this form.

401 Defined Contribution Plans — Many 401 plans require that a married participant designate his/her spouse as the primary beneficiary for 100% of the account, unless the spouse waives his/her right by consenting to an alternative beneficiary designation. State Law — ICMA-RC makes this form available as a means of helping participants satisfy state law requirements relating to beneficiary designations. I further understand that future changes to my spouse's beneficiary designations will not be valid unless I consent to any such changes.
