Biography:

Elizabeth Riebe Executive Director Coronado MainStreet

Born: Orlando, Florida

I recently assumed the position of executive director at Coronado MainStreet. I have been waiting to jump back into a job that would be a worthwhile one. I have learned valuable lessons in fundraising, and communication while supporting, and volunteering my time with various organizations. Including the roles of CEO and CFO of my household.

While out of the workforce, I was able to further my skill set involving multiple fundraising volunteer efforts, community outreach programs within Navy spouse organizations, and CUSD committees.

My personal goal for Coronado MainStreet is to integrate the community more into our organization, and to begin collaborating on projects, and events with other Non-Profits. Hopefully, together, we can revitalize our town after a downturn in our economy due to Covid 19.

Education: University of West Florida. Bachelor of Arts degree in Communication

Biography:

Mariah Rowden, Assistant Director, Coronado MainStreet

Born: Coronado, California

I have been the Assistant Director at Coronado MainStreet since February 2019. I recently completed my Associate of Science degree in Accounting and accepted a position as the Client Onboarding Manager at a national accounting firm. Once I transition to my new position, I will continue to be involved with Coronado MainStreet as a member of the Board of Directors.

I volunteered with Coronado MainStreet for approximately fifteen years before becoming an employee of the organization. In that time, I learned the basics of running each event hosted by Coronado MainStreet. Since becoming the Assistant Director, I have organized and overseen each of the events and facilitated the Coronado Currency program.

I hope to see Coronado MainStreet evolve into a more community-involved organization. We are working hard to expand our collaboration efforts in the community to bring our town back to life and fix the damage done by the unfortunate events of the last year.

Education: San Diego Miramar College. Associate of Science degree in Accounting.
