APPLICATION FOR LICENSE AND CERTIFICATE OF MARRIAGE

PLEASE READ BEFORE COMPLETING APPLICATION ON THE REVERSE

License and Certificate of Marriage (VS 117) — This is the standard type of marriage license. This type of marriage license requires the signature of at least one witness and one person solemnizing the marriage.

Confidential License and Certificate of Marriage (VS 123) — Confidential marriage licenses may only be issued to unmarried parties who are at least 18 years old and have been living together as spouses. The signatures of the parties in fields 23 and 24 affirm that they meet the requirements to receive a confidential marriage license.

License and Certificate of Marriage for Denominations Not Having Clergy (VS 115) — This type of license is used for the recording of marriages for members of religious societies or denominations that do not have clergy for the purpose of solemnizing a marriage.

License and Certificate of Declaration of Marriage (VS 116) — This type of license is used for the recording of a marriage that was licensed and occurred over one year ago; however, no official record exists.

When you sign the marriage application form, you are stating under penalty of perjury that the information you have provided is true and correct, that you are currently an unmarried couple, and that there is no legal objection to the marriage.

You may be married anywhere in California by a person authorized to perform marriages in California pursuant to Family Code Section 400. Check the license to see what the requirements are for witnesses and solemnization.

Marriage licenses are valid for 90 days from the date of issuance. You must be married on or after the issuance date, and on or before the expiration date of the license. Licenses not used within this timeframe are void.

No refunds are given for marriage licenses purchased in error.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE NAME EQUALITY ACT OF 2007

The Name Equality Act of 2007 (AB 102, Chapter 567, Statutes of 2007, amended by AB 1143, Chapter 512, Statutes of 2009) allows one or both applicants to a California marriage to elect to change the middle and/or last names by which each party wishes to be known after they are married by entering the new name in the new name fields, as applicable, on the marriage license application. This must be done at the time the applicants are applying for the marriage license.

Each party to the marriage may adopt any of the following last names (Family Code Section 306.5(b)(2)):

- Current last name of the other spouse.
- Last name of either spouse given at birth.
- A name combining into a single last name all or a segment of the current last name or the last name of either spouse given at birth.
- A hyphenated combination of last names.

Each party to the marriage may adopt any of the following middle names (Family Code Section 306.5 (b)(3):

- Current last name of either spouse.
- The last name of either spouse given at birth.
- A hyphenated combination of the current middle name and the current last name of the person or spouse.
- A hyphenated combination of the current middle name and the last name given at birth of the person or spouse.

NOTE: Parties to the marriage may not change their first name on the marriage license. Parties to the marriage may not add or amend this information after the marriage license is issued unless it is a clerical error and the amendment is signed by the county clerk or his or her deputy and one of the parties to the marriage.

Parties to the marriage are not required to change their name, nor, are they required to have the same name.

If one or both parties do not wish to identify a new name on the marriage license, the fields on the marriage license will be completed using two single dashes. You may not change the information on the marriage license after it has been issued by the County Clerk.

The marriage certificate is used by multiple local, state, federal and private agencies, each of which have different requirements regarding what documents are acceptable to change your name on their records following marriage. It is recommended that you contact these agencies to verify their requirements prior to applying for your marriage license.

County Clerk staff cannot provide you information on how to complete the marriage license application as it relates to the entry of a new name or retention of your former name on the marriage license application. For your protection, if you have any questions regarding whether you should or should not list your new name on the marriage license application, and/or how the Name Equality Act of 2007 may affect you, please consult with a private attorney prior to applying for your marriage license.
