

APPLICATION FOR THERMAL INSULATION MANUFACTURER LICENSE – GENERAL INFORMATION
Keep this page for your records. Do not submit this page with your application for licensure.

Business and Professions Code (BPC) section 19049 provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to engage in a business regulated by the Home Furnishings and Thermal Insulation Act (Act) unless, at the time of doing so, he or she holds a valid unexpired license to engage in that business. To obtain a thermal insulation manufacturer license, an applicant shall submit a completed application with an original signature. Application shall be made on the following “Application for Thermal Insulation Manufacturer License” form and shall be submitted to the Bureau of Household Goods and Services (Bureau) Licensing Unit, along with the appropriate fee (BPC section 19050). Every insulation manufacturer who sells insulation material in California shall hold an insulation manufacturing license. Manufacturers having more than one manufacturing plant shall hold a single license for all plants under the same ownership producing the same generic type of insulation (BPC section 19059.7). The Act applies to insulation sold or offered for sale in California regardless of the point of origin (BPC section 19070).

Applications and fees must be delivered to 4244 S. Market Court, Suite D, Sacramento, CA 95834.

It is mandatory that you complete this application and include all information that pertains to you and your business. Failure to provide any of the required information may result in a delay of the application process and is grounds for rejection of the application as being incomplete. The information provided on this form will be used to determine qualification for licensure as provided by the Act. Collection of this information is authorized by BPC sections 30, 31, 114.5, 115.5, 480, 19049, 19050, and the Information Practices Act (Civil Code section 1798, et seq.) The Bureau makes every effort to protect the personal information you provide us; however, personal information may be disclosed in the following circumstances: In response to a Public Records Act request, to another government agency as required or permitted by state or federal law, or in response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.

You have a right to access records containing your personal information maintained by the Department of Consumer Affairs to the extent permitted by law. Each individual may obtain their records by contacting the Public Records Request Coordinator at the following address and telephone number: 4244 South Market Court, Suite D, Sacramento, CA 95834 or (916) 999-2041.

Disclosure of your Social Security Number (SSN) or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN) is mandatory for all sole proprietors and partners. The Federal Employer Identification Number (FEIN) is mandatory for partnerships. Collecting your SSN, ITIN, and FEIN is required by BPC sections 30 and 31, and Public Law 94-455 (42 USCA 405(c)(2)(C)). SSNs, ITINs, and FEINs are used exclusively for the purpose of tax enforcement, compliance with any judgment or order for family support in accordance with Family Code section 17520, measurement of employment outcomes of students who participate in career technical education programs offered by the California Community Colleges as required by BPC section 30, and investigation of tax evasion and violations of cash-pay reporting laws as set forth in Unemployment Insurance Code section 329. If you fail to disclose your SSN, ITIN, or FEIN, your application for initial or renewal license will not be processed AND you will be reported to the Franchise Tax Board, which may assess a penalty against you per Revenue and Tax Code section 19528.

NOTICE: Effective July 1, 2012, the California Department of Tax and Fee Administration (CDTFA) and the Franchise Tax Board may share taxpayer information with the Bureau pursuant to BPC section 31, subdivision (e). You are obligated to pay your state tax obligation and your license may be suspended if the state tax obligation is not paid.

If you have difficulty accessing any material on this application because of a disability, please contact us in writing or via telephone at the number or e-mail address listed at the top of the application and we will assist in making this information available to you.
