*P3a. Description

This is a two-story front gable vernacular house. It has a strongly vertical form with a pitched front gable roof. The siding is clapboard and there is a triangular pediment on the house and garage. The front door is of the Arts & Crafts period. Windows appear to have been replaced. The house retains integrity. The building currently lies outside the boundaries of the Downtown Historic District. Should the boundaries be adjusted, this building should be considered for inclusion as a contributor.
