Respecting Choice in the Redwood Community

October 1, 2018

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Nathaniel Florez for approximately 2 years. He has been a member of People First of Ukiah (a peer to peer advocacy organization) for the past three years, the last of which he was voted in as President. During this past year I have watched him grow into a confident and competent leader in this position. He is compassionate, motivated, and responsible. He has helped to organize both social and educational events for his peers and has aspirations to continue doing so.

He is well liked by his peers and treats others with kindness and respect. He is a very intelligent and thoughtful young man and his character is an example to all of his peers. He has demonstrated his interest in helping others speak up for themselves and learn how to keep themselves safe in the community. He has sought out high ranking community members to be guest speakers at People First of Ukiah's chapter meetings.

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Nathaniel Florez. He is capable of inspiring others and he leads with humility. He is an honest, strong, and thoughtful young man who I confidently recommend for any opportunity as he would be a wonderful asset to any team.

If you have any questions about this letter, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone (707) 462-3832 ext. 211 or by email csookne@redwoodcoastrc.org.

Sincerely,

Cris Sookne
