

Responding to a Civil Harassment Restraining Order

These forms can be used to respond to a request for a Civil Harassment Restraining Order. If you disagree with the orders that the other person is requesting, you should complete the "Response to Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order" [CH-120] and have someone over the age of 18 other than you serve a copy of the Response on the person who is seeking the Restraining Order. The copy may be served by mail. The person who mails the copy to the other party must complete a "Proof of Service by Mail" [CH-250] and you must file that Proof of Service with the court along with the original Response. The Response and Proof of Service must be filed before the hearing.

Note: you should carefully read all the information on the "How Can I Respond to a Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order" [CH-120-INFO] before completing your response.

You must attend the hearing if you wish to be heard on the issues requested in the documents that you received from the person who wants the restraining order against you. At the hearing the court may make a 3-year order keeping you away from the person asking for the Restraining Order. If you do not attend the hearing the court will not hear your side of the story.

This packet includes a "How Can I Respond to a Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order" [CH-120-INFO] a "Response to Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Order" [CH-120], a "Proof of Service by Mail" [CH-250], a "Proof of Service by Hand" [CH-800-INFO], and a "Proof of Service by Hand" [CH-800].

Note: The civil self help center can review your documents and assist you in correcting any mistakes before you submit your forms to the court. You may wish to speak with a private attorney regarding your rights before you complete these documents, especially if there are criminal charges that may be pending against you.

What is a civil harassment restraining order?

It is a court order that prohibits you from doing certain things and going to certain places.

What does the order do?

The court can order you to:

- Not contact the person who asked for the order
- Stay away from that person and the person's home and workplace
- Not have any guns as long as the order is in effect

Who can ask for a civil harassment restraining order?

A person who is worried about safety because he or she has been or is being:

- Stalked
- Harassed
- Assaulted, including sexually, or
- Threatened with violence

I've been served with a request for civil harassment restraining orders. What do I do now?

Read the papers served on you very carefully. The Notice of Court Hearing tells you when to appear in court. There may also be a Temporary Restraining Order forbidding you from doing certain things. You must obey the order until the hearing.

What if I don't obey the order?

The police can arrest you. You can go to jail and pay a fine.

What if I don't agree with what the order says?

You still must obey the order until the hearing. If you disagree with the orders the person is asking for, fill out form CH-120, Response to Request for Civil Harassment Restraining Orders, before your hearing date and file it with the court. If you need to include attachments, you can use form MC-025. You can get the forms from legal publishers or on the Internet at www.courts.ca.gov. You also may be able to find them at your local courthouse or county law library.

Do I have to serve the other person with a copy of my response?

Yes. Have someone age 18 or older—not you—mail a copy of completed form CH-120 to the person who asked for the order (or that person's lawyer). (This is called "service by mail.")

The person who serves the form by mail must fill out form CH-250, Proof of Service by Mail. Have the person who did the mailing sign the original. Take the completed form back to the court clerk or bring it with you to the hearing.

Should I go to the court hearing?

Yes. You should go to court on the date listed on form CH-109, Notice of Court Hearing. If you do not go to the hearing, the judge can make orders against you without hearing from you.

What if I am deaf or hard of hearing?

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five court days before the hearing.
